

A world-leading certification scheme for commercial raw pet food producers to support the safe production of raw pet food. Expertly delivered by independent certification body Kiwa.

Ensuring the safety of products intended for our pets

Registered and approved raw pet food manufacturing sites

Approved suppliers and supplier assurance procedures for all ingredients

Appropriate plant design and maintenance

Safe product formulation. Precise recipes and production methods

Quality management systems in place including HACCP

Safe handling of ingredients and finished products

Full traceability systems and record keeping

Quality checks throughout the process

Programme of internal auditing

Microbiological testing and analysis

Staff training including personal hygiene and use of protective clothing

Compliant labelling and product communication

For more information on UK Pet Food please scan the QR code opposite.